

Road Safety Task Marking Criteria 2018

Name:

Criteria	5	4	3	2	1	0
Engagement with activity with an emphasis on road safety	A sophisticated engagement with your chosen activity that very closely adheres to the instructions provided and meaningfully engages with key issues around road safety.	A developed engagement with your chosen activity that closely adheres to the instructions provided and engages well with key issues around road safety.	A satisfactory engagement with your chosen activity that adheres to the instructions provided and engages with key issues around road safety.	Limited engagement with your chosen activity that demonstrates limited adherence to the instructions provided and limited engagement with issues around road safety.	Little to no engagement with your chosen activity. You do not adhere to the instructions provided. You demonstrate little to focus on road safety.	Non-attempt, non-serious attempt
Understanding of key concerns with regard to road safety	You convey a sophisticated and empathetic understanding of the impact of road accidents and the need to see improvement on our roads.	You convey a developed and empathetic understanding of the impact of road accidents and the need to see improvement on our roads.	You convey a satisfactory understanding of the impact of road accidents and the need to see improvement on our roads.	You convey a limited understanding of the impact of road accidents and the need to see improvement on our roads.	You convey little to no understanding of the impact of road accidents and the need to see improvement on our roads.	Non-attempt, non-serious attempt
Depth of research and preparation apparent in submitted/ presented task	You convey a depth of understanding that has clearly come about through sophisticated and detailed research and highly developed preparation for your class presentation and/or submission of written work.	You convey a developed understanding that has clearly come about through developed and detailed research and developed preparation for your class presentation and/or submission of written work.	You convey a satisfactory understanding that has clearly come about through developed and detailed research and developed preparation for your class presentation and/or submission of written work.	You convey a limited understanding of shifts and changes in Australian society as seen through pop culture and make limited connections between the past and the present based on observations of your interviewee.	You convey little to no understanding of shifts and changes in Australian society as seen through pop culture and make little to no connections between the past and the present based on observations of your interviewee.	Non-attempt, non-serious attempt
Presentation of information in chosen format			Highly developed speaking and presentation skills and/or Highly effective use of visual aids and/or Highly effective written expression of ideas	Satisfactory speaking and presentation skills and/or Effective use of visual aids and/or Effective written expression of ideas	Limited speaking and presentation skills and/or Limited use of visual aids and/or Limited written expression of ideas	Non-attempt, non-serious attempt
Adherence to time allowed/ word count			Your presentation lasted exactly ten minutes OR you made excellent use of your 1000 word limit and you efficiently and appropriately conveyed your material.	Your presentation lasted approximately ten minutes OR you made satisfactory use of your 1000 word limit and you conveyed your required material.	Your use of the time/word limit lacked efficiency and/or your presentation/written work lacked the required content.	Non-attempt, non-serious attempt
Marks Subtracted				No marks subtracted = Your task was submitted/ you completed your presentation within the set period.	Five marks subtracted = Your task was submitted/ you completed your presentation after the set period. This requires a note of explanation from a parent.	Zero marks awarded = Task submitted considerably after the set period or not submitted at all.
Timely submission of assessment task						